

Release 2.5.7
Release Notes

Fixes

CR 164 Problem displaying nested group view values

When using nested group views with more than one inner group view at the same level, if you increment the subscript of the outer group, you then only see the first inner group view and none others after that when inspecting view values.