

Release 2.5.8
Release Notes

Fixes

CR 165 Cannot change import/export view values

If you change the data in import or export views and are using the xTrace source code post-processor, the changed data values are not always updated correctly in the action block's views.

If you change the LAST of a group view, the first row in the view section may be incorrectly updated to the group view's display value.